

Wear This Badge At Conventions

To win a free anthology!

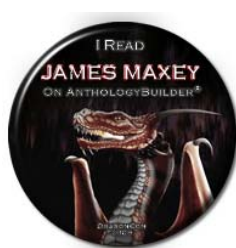

Our secret agents are stalking the convention circuit looking for AnthologyBuilder badge wearers. If they spot you, you'll receive a gift certificate or a free anthology!

Since DragonCon is so huge, we're offering a new way to get prizes: Email a photo of your badge collection (or post it online and send us a link) to badges@anthologybuilder.com. We'll distribute prizes to the first one hundred people who participate. The best prizes will go to photos that: (1) include multiple badges, (2) include someone wearing a costume, or (3) are unusually inventive.
